THE HOME CIRCLE AND ITS INTERESTS.

Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join The Home Circle at Evening Tide.

A Faithful Friend.

Perhaps all dogs are not worthy of mention in our Home Circle Column, but as there is a dog in most homes, the following words from Lawyer Vest will cause you to be more patient with your canine friend if you have one.

Mr. Vest's speech in praise of the dog was made while attending court in a country town. He was prevailed upon to help the attorneys in a case where suit was brought for $200 for loss of a dog. The defense tried to show the dog had viciously attacked the defendant, while the plaintiff sought to prove the killing of the dog was an act of malice. Mr. Vest made no reference to the evidence. In a low voice he said:

"Gentlemen of the Jury: The best friend a man has in the world may turn against him and become his enemy. His son or daughter, that he has reared with loving care, may prove ungrateful. Those who are nearest and dearest to us, those whom we trust with our happiness and our good name, may become traitors to their faith. The money that a man has he may lose. It flies away from him, perhaps when he needs it most. A man's reputation may be sacrificed in a moment of ill-considered action. The people who are prone to fall on their knees to do us honor when success is with us may be the first to throw the stone of malice when failure settles its cloud upon our heads.

"The one absolutely unselfish friend that man can have in this selfish world, the one that never deserts him, the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous, is his dog. A man's dog stands by him in prosperity and in poverty, in health and in sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he may be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer. He will lick the wounds and sores that come from encounter with the roughness of the world. He guards the sleep of his pauper master as if he were a prince. When all other friends desert, he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces, he is constant in his love as the sun in his journey thru the heavens. If fortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than that of accompanying him to guard against danger, to fight his enemies.

"And when the last scene of all comes and death takes the master to its embrace and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by the graveside will the noble dog be found, his head buried in his master's face, his eyes sad but open in alert watchfulness, faithful and true even in death."

The jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $200.

Oh, if you would gather all the tender memories, all the lights and shades of the heart, all banquetings and reunions, all filial, fraternal, paternal and conjugal affections, and you had only just four letters with which to spell out that height, and depth, and length, and breadth, and magnitude, and eternity of meaning, you would, with streaming eyes, and trembling voice, and agitated hand, write it out in those four living capitals, H-O-M-E.

The Poor.

The cold weather of the week that is past has set us all to thinking of the poor. We wonder to how many of us the weary, dreary phrase of hopeless poverty is anything more than a romance. Sitting in our warm and comfortable homes, by pleasant fires with luxurious beds waiting to receive our well fed bodies, we can have no more comprehension of what grinding poverty means than an angel in the full glory of paradise can know of the deepest depths of hell. Think of it! No fuel. Absolutely none. No bed, but piled up rags; little children walking with cold and helpless hunger, cloths torn as old Mother Hubbard's; smells that reach high heaven in their foulness. And in their depth of poverty, to which even our imaginations can scarcely descend lies a lurking curse like the wild beast in its lair. The sordidness of poverty eats out the soul of a man as a tiger drinks blood. Brutality, apathy, the cruelty of fiends, are begot when pride and ambition die utterly.

Home should be made the most interesting and best loved spot on earth, not merely four square walls of wood and brick; it should be the foundation of civilization, the very word should touch every fiber of the soul, and strike every cord of the human heart with its angelic fingers, a place where that is centralized on the higher and better things of life, bringing forth in the highways and byways an influence that will be felt by all with whom it comes in contact. It should be a place where the heart is, a place where out feet may leave but not our hearts, a place where the angels unfold their wings, the place we love best, because it is the place where mother is.

What is your weight in your home and social circle? Test it by considering how many pounds of good nature you have contributed to make your home and friends more cheerful. An ounce of sweetness will make you weigh more at home than a pound of undue harshness or of forgetfulness.

LOOK AT A CHILD'S TONGUE WHEN CROSS, FEVERISH AND SICK

TAKE NO CHANCES! MOVE POISONS FROM LIVER AND BOWELS AT ONCE.

Mother can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, see if tongue is coated, then give this delicious "fruit laxative." Children love it, and it can not cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomach-ache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

"CASCARETS" BEST IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS, SICK, CONSTIPATED

BEST FOR LIVER AND BOWELS,
BAD BREATH, BAD COLDS,
SOUR STOMACH.

Get a 10-cent box.

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right, complexion rosy and your liver and bowels regular for months.

MRS. GRUMP.

IN MEMORY.

Death visited the home of J. N. Roberts and took from them their loving daughter, Ivory, on Feb. 16, 1916, at 10 o'clock a. m. She was sick some few years but when the death angel said she should no longer live she sank peacefully to rest with a bright and loving smile on her face. All her suffering is over, gone to her bliss reward, her better home where toil and care are known to none. She called her relatives all one by one to her bedside and told them all to meet her in heaven. She warned her many friends in her sleep of death, told them to read the 12th chapter of St. Luke and the 12th chapter of Romans.

The people of the whole country visited her through her illness. At her death they mourned the loss of their friend. She is gone but not forgotten and by the promise of our Savior we will meet again in the sweet bye and bye, but God in his wisdom doeth all things well. He has placed her in that heavenly home and says friends and relatives prepare and look up to meet Ivory, she will be watching and waiting at the beautiful gate for you. A few hours before she died she wanted her brother to play the piano and sing and he played and she sang "What a friend we have in Jesus." Her sickness was long but she seemed to have been in the state of readiness. She had sweet communion with Jesus and met loved ones who were waiting to welcome her home to rest in the kingdom of God.

Efficiency built the Panama Canal, after inefficiency failed. The efficiency of the Panama Canal doubled the effectiveness of the U. S. Navy without adding a ship to it. It took over 8,000 miles out of the trip from New York to San Francisco and changed the highway between London and Australia from Suez to Panama.

Efficiency insures against lost motion—it produces the utmost service out of equipment and yields the finest product, at the least cost.

Certain-teed

Roofing

is an efficiency product

Every advantage that men, money and machinery can offer is used to increase the production, maintain the quality and lower the cost. Each of the General's enormous mills is advantageously located to serve the ends of efficient manufacture and quick distribution. Each is equipped with the most up-to-date machinery. Raw materials are purchased in enormous quantities and far ahead of the needs of manufacturing, thus guarding against increased cost due to idle machinery. This also insures favorable buying, and the pick of the market.

Expert chemists at each mill are employed to select and blend the asphalts, and every roll of CERTAIN-TEED is made under their watchful care.

CERTAIN-TEED resists the drying-out process so destructive to ordinary roofing, because the felt is thoroughly saturated with a blend of soft asphalts, prepared under the formula of the General's board of expert chemists. It is then coated with a blend of harder asphalts, which keeps the inner saturation soft. This makes a roofing more pliable, and more impervious to the elements than the harder, drier kind.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). Experience proves that it lasts longer.
